Sites of the Month - Great Sites To Check Out In July

Be a Smarter Consumer

consumer.ftc.gov – Want to know more about consumer issues? Visit this site, which is packed with information about filing a complaint, credit reports, identity theft, and more. Also, explore the sections on homes and mortgages, health and fitness, and avoiding scams.

Toss Around Salad Ideas

allrecipes.com – Salads aren't just side dishes any more. This site offers dozens of main dish salad recipes, perfect for summer dinners. Not convinced? You will be when you try Caprese Salad with Grilled Flank Steak or Grilled Chicken Taco Salad. Make enough to have leftovers for lunch the next day!

Stay Safe While Boating

discoverboating.com – Boating is one of those great pleasures that typically only happen in summer. But, before you get on the water, visit this site for safety tips like checking the weather and following a pre-departure checklist prior to setting out. Those with pets or kids will find sections devoted to their well-being.

Watch Handy DIY Videos

planitdiy.com – Have a home improvement idea but no clue where to start? This helpful site provides how-to videos on a range of projects including plumbing, electrical, home safety, heating and cooling, lawn and garden, and more. The videos are easy to follow and much cheaper than hiring a professional.
